Comment on planning applications S/04/18 Town End, Barbon

Full planning permission for conversion of barn adjoining house into a three bedroom dwelling

Dear Mr Davis

Friends of the Dales has no difficulty with the design of this barn conversion, and it is in a discrete position on a quiet road, but assuming that this is to become a separate dwelling, then there is a question mark over parking.

The building is quite close to a narrow road, and existing vehicles already occupy the parking spaces shown on the proposal. We suggest that extra parking provision should be made, and the applicants be requested to propose a simple scheme."

Yours sincerely

Dr Malcolm Petyt, Chair of Policy Committee
