If, like us, you love the Dales... Please consider leaving a Gift in your Will

Your kindness will help us keep this amazing place special and vibrant for years to come – vital with ever more pressing threats of climate breakdown and the biodiversity crisis.

- Gifts in Wills are extremely important to our charity as we receive no direct funding from government and rely almost entirely on voluntary donations and subscriptions.
- Without legacy Gifts we would not be able to stand up so effectively for the Dales, its communities, landscapes and wildlife when threats arise.
- As a trusted and successful environmental campaigning charity with a track record of more than 40 years, you can be assured that our Trustees will make proper and good use of any Gift you are able to leave to our charity.
- A future Gift might be more appealing than a Gift right now, especially when times are difficult for so many of us.
- We can supply stories and testimonials to show how legacies have helped us in the past.
